DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Re claim 1, "the isolator" used throughout the claims (i.e. 4 places total) lacks clear antecedent basis and should apparently be —the resilient member—at each occurrence for clarity. Additionally, "the fender attaching member" lacks clear antecedent basis and should apparently be —the fender support rod—as best understood.

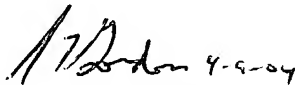

Re claim 2, "the fender attaching member" lacks clear antecedent basis and should apparently be —the fender support rod—as best understood.

Re claim 3, "the fender attaching member" lacks clear antecedent basis and should apparently be —the fender support rod—as best understood.

2. Claims 1-4 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
3. Claims 5-8 are allowed.
4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Note at least Willson et al teaches a fender/support assembly for a tractor.
